Wooden Toys From ImagiPlay

Wooden toys are a treat to play with. It's a different sort of fun playing with wooden toys. They're sturdy and last for a long time. However, it's important that the wooden toys your child plays with are safe. ImagiPlay is a line of wooden toys which are naturally earth-friendly, being made from renewable, plantation grown, chemically-free rubberwood. The makers of Imagiplay vouch for the fact that their wooden toys do not contain lead paint. Here's a look at a selection of wooden toys from ImagiPlay.
